FURNISHING HOUSES

ON THE

INSTALLMENT PLAN.

Buying Furniture on the Installment Plan, has, within a few years become quite popular. Indeed, when mutual Confidence exists between the Merchant and his Customer, the Installment system is to be commended. It enables the industrious housekeeper to enjoy the comforts of nicely furnished apartments, long before she might be in a position to save as much as would buy her furniture at once; besides, the small Weekly payments that are made until the goods are paid for, are never missed by the Family.

We have just perfected a system of Installment which enables us to treat every customer with the greatest consideration, and to sell on Terms and Conditions to suit their means.

By Our Installment plan, every Housekeeper, no matter how slender her Means, is here afforded an opportunity to Furnish her Apartments with the best quality of Furniture, Carpets, Oil Cloths, &c., of the Latest styles and patterns, at the very Lowest market prices, and on such easy terms by Weekly payments as her means will allow.

If housekeepers will only buy from Respectable houses, they may rest assured that their Weekly Payments will be made easy, while they will be spared the annoyance to which hundreds are subjected who buy from Unscrupulous and Untruthful men, to whose stores Incautious purchasers are frequently Allured by Flaming Clap-Trap advertisements, holding forth the most Unreasonable inducements, and Promises that are not to be Kept.

We have always Discountenanced such "humbug," and we caution the public to beware of those men who advertise their goods to be "given

JOHNNIKIN AND THE GOBLINS

AUNT.—Now I must take away the candle, Johnny.

JOHNNY.—N-n-o, please, Aunty.

AUNT.—Why, you're not afraid, surely. You know Angels watch over good little boys.

JOHNNY.—Yes, Aunty, but then they can't see to watch 'em in the dark!

away," or sold on "time" as long as "eight or ten years." And while no sane man or woman believes the unmitigated Humbug, yet its authors invite the public to visit their warerooms, where they are told justice will be done them. Yes, "justice with a vengeance."

As to the Reputation of our old established House, we refer the public to the Testimonials of our numerous customers throughout the country, who for the past fifty years have favored us with their Patronage, and reposed in us their unbounded Confidence. Our good name has been Awarded us for Fair Dealing and Honest representation, and we are determined to maintain it to the last. Our is in charge of polite, competent and considerate gentlemen, who "study to please" their customers, and against one of whom a complaint has never reached us.

The instructions which we give them are Simple but Positive—namely, to represent the goods for what they are; to sell them at the Lowest market prices, and on terms of Weekly Installments to suit their customers. These instructions are carried out to the letter, and hence there are no complaints.

We respectfully solicit your custom, and we pledge ourselves to do all in our power to make your visit to our Warerooms pleasant and agreeable.

CAUTION TO OUR PATRONS.

WE find many of our customers in coming to our House happen to get into other stores in our VICINITY, when they ask:

"IS THIS JORDAN & MORIARTY'S?"

and invariably are informed that it is. They then purchase, supposing that they are, doing business with our House—

(Which has always been Noted for its Honesty and Fair Dealing), and only discover, after it is too late, the deception which has been practiced on them.

WE CAUTION OUR

PATRONS AND THE PUBLIC

who are desirous of doing business with us, to avoid and shun such parties, and have no dealings with people who are capable of being guilty of such MEAN, PETTY TRICKERY, which, to say the least, is a most dishonorable system of doing business.

By all means, we CAUTION and advise those going to our House for the purpose of doing business with us, to be careful and —An Englishman at a hotel in New York asked the clerk if there were “oysters in the hotel.”

“Oh, yes!” was the answer. “Step right in the restaurant; we don’t keep them in the office.”

“Egad!” said Mr. John Bull, “I think you misunderstand me, you know; I mean a ‘oyster—don’t you know?—a lift—a hellevator, maybe you call it in this country.”

60 Cents for this Cane-Seat Chair at JORDAN & MORIARTY'S.

—A furrier recently sent the store-boy to the back part of the establishment to bring forward a certain cape. After some time the youngster returned with the article, neatly folded up, and was greeted with:

“Well, you’ve got back at last, have you? You’ve been gone long enough to sail from South America.”

“Well, sir,” said the lad, as he modestly raised his parcel, “I did double the cape.”

—When James T. Brady first opened a lawyer's office in New York, he took a basement room, which had previously been occupied by a cobbler. He was somewhat annoyed by the previous occupant's callers, and irritated by the fact that he had few of his own. One day an Irishman entered.

“The cobbler's gone, I see,” he said.

“I should think he had,” tartly responded Brady.

“And what do you sell?” he said, looking at the solitary table and a few law-books.

“Blockheads!” responded Brady.

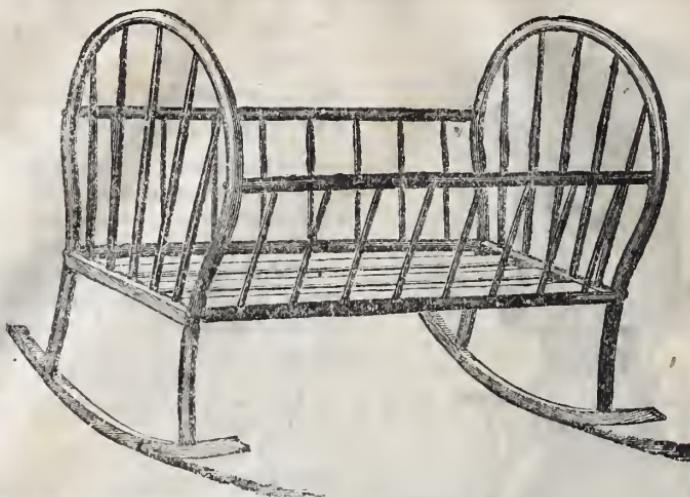

“Begorra,” said the Irishman, “ye must be doing a mighty fine business—ye hain't got but one left!”

—“My friend,” said the Rev. Sydney Smith to a cobbler who was mending his shoes when the great wit was a poor curate in Gloucestershire, “you remind me of the sacred ordinance of matrimony.”

“How so?” quoth the cobbler.

“Because you bind two soles together in unity,” replied Mr. Smith, with becoming gravity.

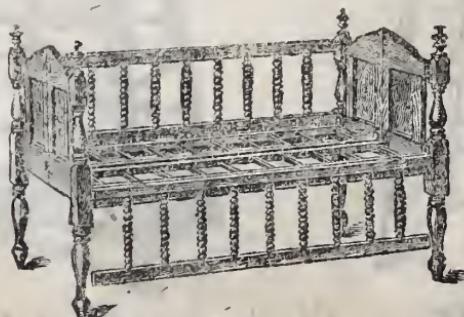

—“No, ma’am,” said a grocer, to an applicant for credit, “I wouldn’t trust my own feelings.”
